DISTRICT OF NEVADA

United States of America,

Case No.: 2:22-cv-00605-JAD-BNW

Plaintiff

V.

Cody J. Christensen, et al.,

Defendants

Order Granting in Part Motion to Extend Deadline to Respond to Motion for Summary Judgment

[ECF No. 42]

8 In this suit over unpaid federal-tax obligations, the government has moved for summary
9 judgment in its favor.¹ Defendant Cody Christensen asks the court to extend his November 27th 10 opposition deadline by more than four months—to April 1, 2024.² He explains that he “must 11 have time to write his opposition since there are nearly 300 pages with false statements,
12 unrelated materials, and misleading of the courts by the Trial Attorney for the United States.”³
13 The government takes the position that some extension of Christensen’s deadline is warranted, 14 but the length he seeks is excessive.⁴ The court agrees. Although the court is sympathetic that 15 there are more than 200 pages of exhibits attached to government’s motion for summary
16 judgment, the motion itself spans just 12 pages. The court thus finds good cause to enlarge 17 Christensen’s period for response by 60 days, to January 26, 2024, for a total response period of 18 81 days.

19 IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that Defendant Cody Christensen's motion to extend 20 time [ECF No. 42] is GRANTED in part. Christensen's deadline to respond to the motion
